Dear Peggy:

I was distressed to learn of your grandfather's illness. I have remembered him and your grandmother today in my prayers. Thank you so much for asking me to pray for them. I deeply regret that his problem has arisen but I know that all will work out for the best.

I am wondering how your school work is progressing. I had thought that you would be in Abilene Christian College this fall. You might let me know where you are in your school work and what your future plans are.

It's always a pleasure to hear from you. Thank you so much for your recent letter and request.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk

Dear Bro. Chalk

First, I want to congratulate you on your new position, but, to be completely honest I must admit that I recieved the good news of your new position about a week before I recieved your letter. I was very delighted to hear that you weren't leaving Abilene and I sincerely believe that you did make the right decision. My Grandparents also told me to give you their congratulations.

Bro. Chalk, I want to ask you a special favor. Will you please pray for my Grandfather? Lately he has been very sick and has been going to the doctors twice daily. He has a very bad respiration problem and he feels that he may have Cancer. We are all aware that Cancer is very serious and there is no cure, so I am asking you to pray for him and the work which he is doing in Colorado City, Texas. Of course, the doctor hasn't said that he has Cancer, but this is what my Grandfather feels he has... and this fact alone, has my family and myself quite concerned. If anything should happen to my Grandfather, I can't help but wonder what would happen to my Grandmother. She is totally dependant on him, and I know she is very troubled. So will you Please remember them both in your prayers? It would be greatly appreciated.

I will continue to pray for you and ask God's blessings on the work there in Abilene.

In Christian Love,

Peggy J. Shinn
